Why do we need your personal information and what do we do with it?

You are giving us your personal information to allow us to respond to your comment, compliment or complaint. We need to process your personal information if you chose to escalate your complaint to the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman. We also use your information to verify your identity where required, contact you by post, email or telephone and to maintain our records.

Legal basis for using your information:

We provide services to you as an ALEO of Glasgow City Council, your local authority. You can find more details about City Parking and about how to submit a customer Comments, Compliments or Complaint at www.cityparkingglasgow.co.uk

Processing your personal information is necessary for the compliance with our legal obligations including for complaints its requirements under the Public Service Reform (Scotland) Act 2010.

Who do we share your information with?

As an ALEO of Glasgow City Council we are legally obliged to safeguard public funds so we are required to verify and check your details internally for fraud prevention. We may share this information with other public bodies (and also receive information from these other bodies) for fraud checking purposes. We are also legally obliged to share certain data with other public bodies, such as HMRC and will do so where the law requires this. We will also generally comply with requests for specific information from other regulatory and law enforcement bodies where this is necessary and appropriate. Your information is also analysed internally to help us improve our services. This data sharing is in accordance with Privacy Policy which is on our website at www.cityparkingglasgow.co.uk/dataprotection . It also forms part of our requirements in line with Glasgow City Council's Records Management Plan approved in terms of the Public Records (Scotland) Act 2011.

Where you ask the Scottish Public Services Ombudsman to look at your complaint we will be legally obliged to share your information with them.

How long do we keep your information for?

We only keep your personal information for the minimum period amount of time necessary. Sometimes this time period is set out in the law, but in most cases it is based on the business need. We maintain a records retention and disposal schedule which sets out how long we hold different types of information for.

You can view this on our website at www.cityparkingglasgow.co.uk/dataprotection or you can request a hard copy from the contact address stated above.
